Burghausen Castle - The longest in the world

Romantic Weddings in Southern Bavaria/Germany

More and more couples from all over the world are deciding on a traditional wedding ceremony in Germany.

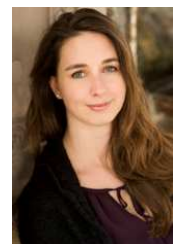

We would like to recommend the services of Burghausen Castle and ourselves for your Romantic Wedding.

Burghausen is situated in the beautiful Salzach Valley and combines a medieval old town and the longest Castle in the world recorded for the first time in the Guinness book of records 2010.

A further advantage is that the Register office, chapel and banqueting/reception rooms are all within 50 meters.

We offer you and your guests the complete package comprising of a competent consultation, individual design and a professional service all on site, offered in both English & German

We will be pleased to discuss your requirements.

Many Reasons to choose Burghausen

Burghausen

Burghausen is situated in the South East of Upper Bavaria close to the Upper Austrian border in a beautiful fairy tale setting.

The Longest Castle in the world

The Castle which is over 1000 years old and 1051 meters long sits high above the old town.

Distances from

Salzburg 50 km
Munich 110 km

The Castle Courtyard

Enjoy an aperitif in the inner castle courtyard.

The Knights Hall

This was originally the lounge for The Knights and is a special room for a wonderful wedding reception with seating for up to 160 persons seated on round tables.

The Porters Lodge

This is located in the main Castle and is ideal for a smaller and more intimate wedding reception with seating for a maximum of 60 persons.

Churches

A small Chapel is located within the main Castle. And within 5Km radius there are also situated Rocco, Gothic and Baroque style Churches.

Working together as one.
